

Richard Paul

Changing the world, one duck at a time!

Presenter Introduction

Our presenter today has spoken to over 100 thousand business professionals, association members and educators throughout the world.

He began his performing/business career at age twelve presenting ventriloquist shows in his parents garage, charging ten cents to get in and twenty-five cents to get out.

Since 1975 he has owned and operated a successful entertainment and events planning company. He and his staff have helped produce and create fun for many Fortune 500 companies and association events.

He holds a Bachelors Degree in Communication and Marketing from Oakland University and is part of the continuing education staff for Center for Continuing Education at Macomb Community College.

He is a member of the Association for Conflict Resolution, the Michigan Educational Association, the National Speakers Association, former board of director of the National Speakers Association-Michigan and a Charter Member, Vice President and Past President of the Central Macomb Optimist Club.

He also is an award winning speaker and author. His books have been featured in The Wall Street Journal, The Detroit News and Free Press, Fox News Network and he has also been seen on Good Morning America.... waving through the window.

Please welcome: Richard Paul
